MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, FEB. 7, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—J. W. Watson, of Marietta, a former resident of Matamoras, was in town Monday and Tuesday. He is interested in a large block of Washington county oil territory which will soon be tested.—Matamoras Mail.

—Ladies', Gents' and Childrens' underwear at greatly reduced prices at Bee Hive Store.

—Constable J. H. Dye returned Thursday from a trip to Mayville, Ky., to which town he went in pursuit of Ella Milligan and John Rickey, who eloped last week. He brought back the parties wanted, having found them at Portsmouth, where Mrs. Milligan had rented and furnished rooms. Mrs. Milligan and Rickey were both placed in jail. When arrested Mrs. Milligan stated that most of the money taken belonged to her, having been given her by her husband.

—The Raschen case which was carried from Probate Court to Common Pleas Court, and which has been frequently detailed in the Leader, was settled Thursday. The widow pays to the three brothers, Deidrick Raschen, of Marietta, and Herman and Heinrich Raschen, of Germany, $1500.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Congregational church will give a social at the Chapel, Friday evening, February 7th. Ice cream and cake. Come everybody.

—January 29th, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cavert, of Topeka, Kansas. Grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Shepard, Second street, Marietta.

—The residence of W. G. Bartholow, on Upper Third street, was sold Thursday to a Mr. Watts, of Butler, Pa. The amount paid was $3600.

—Mr. T. N. Barnsdall, of Bradford, Pa., was a business visitor to our city Thursday.

—Roeser Bros. got a fine well in the Corning field yesterday.

—A letter received from Chicago, gives the details of the injury to William Lofland, notice of which has appeared in the Leader. Mr. Lofland, who is in the employ of the Calumet Gas Company, was carrying a revolver in his hip pocket, together with a bunch of keys. In jerking the keys from his pocket hurriedly the trigger of the revolver was caught and the weapon discharged. The bullet entered his side and up to the time the letter referred to was written had not been found. Mr. Lofland is seriously injured, but it is hoped not fatally.

—Big bargains in lace, embroideries, lace curtains, towels, towelings and table cloth goods at Bee Hive Store.

—The Marietta Glee, Mandolin and Guitar Club will give a popular concert at popular prices on Thursday evening, March 5th, at the Auditorium. This club is composed of 30 male voices and 20 mandolins and guitars, in all about 50. That the entertainment will be enjoyable goes without saying.

—Mrs. Ed. Reynolds and Mrs. Frank Best returned Thursday night from a visit at Canton.

—Mr. Harry Theis has been elected Manager and Walter Seaman Captain of the Lobdell base ball team.

—Capt. Elmer Bartlett is acting as mate on the Bob Ballard during the absence of the regular mate Geo. Suter who has been confined to his home in Belpre for several weeks with a serious attack of pneumonia fever.—Sentinel.

—Rev. E. B. Whitaker left Thursday morning for his home at Strasburg, Ohio.

—Mrs. R. W. Miller, Harmar street, is seriously ill of grip.

—Coroner Willis went out yesterday to hold a formal postmortem on the body of Michael Pickett, killed by Asa Male.

—A. N. Dyer has been bound over to the grand jury to answer to the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

—Dol. C. Crippen, brakeman on a westbound extra on the B. & O. S. W., was struck by an overhead bridge a few miles west of Marshfield Thursday morning. He died at six o'clock the same evening. The unfortunate young man was unmarried and lived with his mother at Stewart. He was a cousin of Brakeman B. E. Crippen, of the Marietta-Parkersburg branch.

—Mr. Charlie Coffman, West Side, gave a stag party last night, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

—R. F. Lee, who has been connected with the River Gas Co., left Thursday for Sharon, Pa.

—E. W. Armstrong, a leading merchant of Woodsfield, Monroe county, was in the city Thursday.

—Attorney John E. Chapin, of Pittsburg, is in the city on legal business.

—Lobdell Cycling Club will give an ice cream social at their club room in Muskingum Park next Thursday evening, the net proceeds to be applied toward the expenses of the coming diamond meet. Arnold's orchestra will furnish music for the occasion and a delightful evening is expected.

—Try the Bee Hive Store for laces, embroideries, lace curtains, towels, towelings, tablecloth goods and napkins. They sell cheap for cash.

—Just received a new line of laces and embroideries. Cheaper than ever at Bee Hive Store.

—Marietta Commandery No. 50 will meet tonight at the Asylum. Work in the Red Cross degree. A meeting is called for all the Masons at hall of Harmar Lodge Putnam street, Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock. Business of importance.

—Mr. Barney Freedman, of Zanesville, is in the city looking after his little brother, Sam.

—Mrs. James W. Nye, Fourth street, announces herself, to be at home Wednesday evening, February 12th, to a number of lady friends, in honor of her daughters, Misses Katherine and Rebekah Nye. Time from 4 until 8 o'clock p. m.

—Our remaining stock of winter millinery goods regardless of cost until March 1st. Bee Hive Store.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

Waverly, February 4.—The Reed well on the Pollock farm is showing up for the best well in the field. They got the sand at a depth of 1435 feet and shut down till the boiler could be moved and the proper connections made. This well is located directly north of the Sharp well and is the strongest gasser struck in this vicinity for some time.

The tools are out of the Webb & Crompton well on the Ransom farm and it should be in the first of the week.

The Charlotte Oil Co., on the Reynolds farm, is due in the latter part of the week. The well will be watched with interest on account of it opening up such an immense strip of undeveloped territory.

The Calf Creek Co., on the Angus farm, should be in by Friday. This well is directly west of their wells on the Sharp and James farms.

Robert Patty, of Patty Bros., who drilled the first well on the Eph Wells farm, is in a dangerous state of illness at his home in Bowling Green, Ohio. His illness is an affection of the stomach, which it is thought will have fatal results.

Sistersville, W. Va., February 5.—Buehelt No. 1, which was drilled in some time ago and thought to be dry, has been cleaned out and put to pumping, and will probably make a good producer.

The Carter Oil Company's rig at No. 11, on the Rudolph farm, across the river, was burned this morning about 8 o'clock, together with the engine and belt house. The fire was caused by a workman stepping on his vest in which there was a lot of matches and setting them off. The loss will amount to $400.

The big gas well of the Kanawha Oil Company, on Anthony Smith's farm, near Wick, has had a lost bit in it ever since the gas was struck, but yesterday the drillers succeeded in drilling past the bit. The well will not be drilled in for a few days yet.

Scott Town.

Mr. James Adams lost a very valuable horse recently.

The prophets here declare there is oil here, why don't somebody come and test.

The protracted meeting is still in progress at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. McVay and others. Fourteen additions.

The school at this place is progressing finely, with Professor Daugherty as teacher.

Mrs. Leander Thomas was thrown from her horse while returning home from church Friday evening, Jan. 30th, sustaining a broken arm and other injuries.

Six weeks more winter, so they say, for the groundhog saw his shadow sure.

Mr. Frank Congleton and sister, of Fifteen, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. Lewis Adams.

Robert Carle, the son of I. H. Carle, is very sick with lung trouble.

Mr. Adam Tewalter, of Monroe county, was the guest of Mr. William Hall Sunday last.

Miss Edie Adams, of Wingett Run, is visiting her uncle, J. S. Hall, of Monroe county.

The Ohio's Bed.

A prominent geologist who has been looking into the formation of the bed of the Ohio river 43 miles below Pittsburg says the old river bed is 300 feet above the present water level, and he finds there stones of Canadian granite, whose nearest home now is on the Canadian side of Lake Ontario. In the glacial gravel he came across a rough arrowhead, which he attributes to the glacial period, perhaps 300,000 years ago.

At the close of business Tuesday the gold reserve stood at $47,136,143. The withdrawals for the day were $613,200.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

Barlow.

The Teachers' Institute at Barlow was not so largely attended as it would have been if the people of the village and vicinity had not been sick. A delegation from Marietta was present, which added much to the success of the Institute. Mr. Barlow was manager, to whom much credit is due.

Rev. Daniel Canfield, who has been visiting his father, has returned to Chicago to resume his work there.

Our doctor, R. W. Athey is kept quite busy. There is a great deal of sickness in the neighborhood.

Geo. Martyn and wife spent a few days with their daughter at Waverly.

Rev. Teator commenced his protracted meetings Sunday at Barlow.

Mrs. Phebe Burchett and family, of Vincent, have moved to Cambridge, where she will keep boarders. Her friends wish her success.

Mrs. Kelly and baby, of Marietta, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deming.

Some of the Barlow people attended the Farmers' Institute at Watertown. A great many more would have attended had it not been for bad roads and weather.

The Dead Man Identified.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 4.—The man found dead in a boarding house on Pine street last Sunday night has been identified as D. M. Louden, a well-known citizen of Altoona, Pa. He resided at 1713 Thirteenth street, that city, with his wife and four children, two sons and two daughters, all grown. He was 62 years of age, and a union veteran of the civil war. The deceased left Altoona last Wednesday for the purpose of going to Cincinnati, O., to be treated for rheumatism. Instead, he came to St. Louis and here met his death under circumstances which indicate foul play. A woman who occupied the room with him is missing.

Robbed and Murdered.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 5.—Near Bluefields Tuesday an unknown man, who had just arrived in the locality from New York with considerable money, was found dead with three bullet holes in his body and his skull crushed. He had undoubtedly been robbed and murdered. There is no clue.

See John Griffith, the greatest living "Mephisto" in Henry Irving's version of "Faust," in his great work upon the summit of the "Brocken," amidst the showers of real fire, and real lightning. No finer scene has ever been attempted before in Marietta.

Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

A Further Array of Facts!

A little rain, a little sun, a little grief,
A little fun, a little work and life is done.
You'll be happy while you're here
If you buy your "drugs" of "us";
For our "prices" are so low
That our drugs are "continually" on the "go";
They come in by the "loads"
And go out on all the "boats",
They never lay and "rust"
But we'll make them go or "bust."
